The Vowels are sometimes thus abbreviated.

ā for an; ē for en, em; ī for im; ō for on, om;
ū for un, um.

As for Example.

A Soldier ūder Cōmand, must be cōstant in dāger, and not cōplain.

A Vowel is a Letter which makes a full and perfect Sound of itself, without which no Word can be made.

A.

A, I, and O, are Words of themselves, as (A) Man of Words without Deeds. (I) suppose no Man values, (O) that there were not too many of them in this Age!

A is sounded short before any single Consonant; as mad, sad, bad; but long in Words ending in e; as made, spade, trade; and broad in bald, balk, call, halt.

E is sounded short in net, fret, let, met; long in e-di-fy, e-mu-late, e-qui-ty, sin-cere, these.

I is sounded short in bit, shit, sit; long in slice, lice, price, dice, mice.

O is sounded short in not, plot, shot; long in none, bone, tone, hone.

U is sounded short in dull, full, hull, bull; long in Ruth, truth, youth. I and u never end a Word without an e; as vir-tue, va-lue, pur-sue, skie.

Y is sounded short in Nymph, long in Ty-rant; Y is never written in the Middle of a Word, unless it be deriv'd from the Greek, as Ba-by-lon, A-po-cry-pha, Sy-na-gogue.

Again, A is not sounded in Aa-ron, Ca-na-an, I-sa-ac.

E is not sounded in the Middle of a Word, as George, heard, moneth, Tues-day.

I is not sounded in car-ri-age, mar-ri-age, par-li-ament, fa-shi-on, ve-ni son, juice, de-ceive, nei-ther.

O is not sounded in da-mo-sel, goal, Cou-rage, cour-teous, dou-ble, doub-let, youth.

U is not sounded in guard, guess, guide, soul, buy, har-bour, Sa-vi-our, ti-mo-rous.

Y is not sounded in Mon-key, At-tor-ney, Coun-try.

Of Consonants.

The Sound of the Consonants seems to be b bee, c cee, d dee, f ef, g gee, j jee, k ca, or ka, l el, m em, n en, p pee, q cu, or ku, r ar, or er, s es, t tee, u yu, x ex, y yi, z zed.

Consonants without Vowels will compound no Word, nor Sound, but gld must stand for glad, bld for bled, brm for brim, blk for black, plck for pluck.

B is not sounded in Words of one Syllable; as lamb, dumb, womb, thumb, comb.

C is not sounded in con-sci-ence, as-cent, scep-ter, in-dict-ment, sce-dule, Scy-thi-an.

D is

D is not founded in friend-ship, hand-maid, hand-some, hand-ker-cher.

G is not founded in sign, feign, reign; nor in their Compounds, as-sign, feign-ed, so-ve-reign.

H is not founded in Cha-rac-ter, se-pul-chre, Chri-sti-an, cho-ler, chy-mi-cal, rheum, rhe-to-rick, chro-no-lo-gy.

K is not founded after c in the same syllable; as clack, dock, sick, lock, pluck.

L is not founded in Malm-sey, calf, half, talk, walk, Bri-stol, Lin-coln.

N is not founded in damn, con-demn, kiln, co-lumn, au-tumn.

P is not founded in Psal-m, tempt, re-demp-ti-on, sump-tu-ous, Psal-te-ry, Symp-tom.

S is not founded in Is-land, Vis-count.

W is not founded in two, sha-dow, wi-dow.

In some few words there are two or three Letters that are not founded; as ch in sche-dule, schism, schif-ma-ticks; gh in de-light, al-migh-ty. righ-te ous; ue in e-pi-logue, car-ta-logue, pro-logue, re-lique, di-a-logue, con-strue; ugh in al-though. The Reason why Letters are written, tho' they are not pronounced, is sometimes to shew the Propriety of our English Tongue; and sometimes to shew that the Words are derived from Latin, and other Languages; as debt, doubt, sign, reign, Isle, Psal-m.

A Syllable is joining several Letters together; and every Syllable must have a Vowel; therefore let the Learner count them on his Fingers, as a-bo-mi-na-ti-on, ex-tra-or-di-na-ri-ly, com-mand-ment.

If two Vowels come together, and are both fully pronounced, put the first Vowel to the former Syllable, and the latter to the following Syllable; as mu-tu-al, qui-et, co-e-qual, tri-umph, co-e-ter-nal.

If a single Consonant come between two Vowels, it must be joined to the following Vowel, as re-port, not rep-ort, a-ni-mate, not an-i-mate, a-vail, not av-ail, be-came, not bec-ame: But a Consonant between two Vowels is usually joined to the latter, as re-gard, re-ward. If a double Consonant come in the Middle of a Word, one is joined to the former, the other to the following Syllable, as bat-ter, scat-ter, of-fice, but-ter. If two Consonants come between two Vowels, they likewise be divided, as spend-ing, sted-fast, stran-ger, trum-pet, sporting. When three Consonants, which are proper to begin Words, come between two Vowels, they must be joined to the following Vowels, as con-strain-ing, not conf-trai-ning, because s, t, r, are proper to begin Words. Some Words begin with Consonants of two Letters, as draw, drew, drive, dwel, flow, fret, grow, know, plow, prince, scale, shop, slide, speak, stand, skin, smite, smart, squint, that, tree, twin, when, wrong. Some Words begin with three Consonants, as Scripture, Phrases, strive, spring, shriek, threw, thwack, split.

There are eight proper Diphthongs, ai, oi, au, eu, ou, ae, oe, eo, which are two Vowels sounded together in one Breath, as hair, aunt; and six improper Diphthongs ay, ey, oy, aw, ew, owe, which though of like Sound, yet are differently spelt; for proper Diphthongs are used in the beginning or middle of a Word, as air, aid, aim, fain, either, neither; but in the End of a Word they are written with ay, as pray, prey, joy.

St. Matthew, Chap. V.

AND see-ing the Mul-ti-tudes, Je-sus went up in-to a Moun-tain; and when he was sat, his Dis-ci-ples came un-to him.

2 And he o-pen-ed his Mouth and taught them, say-ing,

3 Blef-fed are the Poor in Spi-rit, for theirs is the King-dom of Hea-ven.

4 Blef-fed are they that mourn, for they shall be com-for-ted.

5 Blef-fed are the Meek, for they shall in-he-rit the Earth.

6 Blef-fed are they which do hun-ger, and thirst af-ter Righ-te-ous-ness, for they shall be fil-led.

7 Blef-fed are the Mer-ci-ful, for they shall ob-tain Mer-cy.

8 Blef-fed are the pure in Heart, for they shall see God.

9 Blef-fed are the Peace-ma-kers, for they shall be cal-led the Chil-dren of God.

10 Blef-fed

10 Blef-fed are they which are per-se-cu-ted for Righte-ous-ness sake, for theirs is the King-dom of Hea-ven.

11 Blef-fed are ye, when Men shall re-vile you, and per-se-cute you, and shall say all man-ner of E-vil a-gainst you false-ly for my sake.

12 Re-joice and be ex-ceed-ing glad, for great is your Re-ward in Hea-ven ; for so per-se-cu-ted they the Pro-phets which were be-fore you.

St. Luke, Chap. XV. ver. 11.

A Cer-tain Rich Man had two Sons.
12 And the youn-ger of them said to his Fa-ther, Fa-ther give me the Por-ti-on of Goods that fal-leth to me. And he di-vi-ded un-to them his Liv-ing.

13 And not ma-n-y Days af-ter, the youn-ger Son ga-ther-ed all to-ge-ther, and took his Jour-ney in-to a far Coun-try, and there wa-sted his Sub-stance with ri-o-tous Li-ving.

14 And when he had spent all, there a-rose a migh-ty Fa-mine in that Land ; and he be-gan to be in Want.

15 And he went and join-ed him-self to a Ci-ti-zen of that Coun-try, and he sent him in-to the Field to feed Swine.

16 And he would fain have fil-led his Bel-ly with the Husks that the Swine did eat, and no Man gave un-to him.

17 And when he came to him-self, he said, How ma-n-y hi-red Ser-vants of my Fa-ther's have Bread e-nough and to spare, and I pe-rish with Hun-ger.

18 I will a-rise and go to my Fa-ther, and will say un-to him, Fa-ther, I have sin-ned a-gainst Hea-ven, and be-fore thee.

19 And am no more wor-thy to be cal-led thy Son : make me as one of thy hi-red Ser-vants.

20 And he a-rose and came to his Fa-ther. But when he was yet a great way off, his Fa-ther saw him, and had com-pas-si-on, and ran, and fell on his Neck, and kif-fed him.

21 And the Son said un-to him, Fa-ther, I have sin-ned a-gainst Hea-ven, and in thy sight, and am no more wor-thy to be cal-led thy Son.

22 But

22 But the Fa-ther said un-to his Ser-vant, bring forth the best Robe, and put it on him, and put a Ring on his Hand, and Shoes on his Feet.

23 And bring hi-ther the fat-ted Calf, and kill it ; and let us eat and be mer-ry.

24 For this my Son was dead and is a-live a-gain : he was lost, and is found. And they be-gan to be mer-ry.

25 Now his el-der Son was in the Field, and as he came and drew nigh to the House, he heard mu-sick and dan-cing.

26 And he cal-led one of the Servants, and ask-ed what these Things meant.

27 And he said un-to him, thy Bro-ther is come : and thy Fa-ther has kil-led the fat-ted Calf, be-cause he hath re-ceiv-ed him safe and found.

28 And he was an-gry, and would not go in ; there-fore came his Fa-ther out and in-treat-ed him.

29 And he an-swer-ing, said to his Fa-ther, Lo ! these ma-n-y Years did I serve thee, nei-ther trans-gres-sed I at a-ny time thy com-mand-ment, and yet thou ne-ver ga-vest me a Kid, that I might make mer-ry with my Friends.

30 But as-foon as this thy Son was come, which had de-vour-ed thy Li-ving with Har-lots, thou hast kil-led for him the fat-ted Calf.

31 And he said un-to him, Son, thou art e-ver with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make mer-ry and be glad ; for this thy Bro-ther was dead, and is a-live a-gain, and was lost, and is found.

St. Luke, Chap. XVI. ver. 19.

T Here was a cer-tain rich Man, which was cloath-ed in Pur-ple and fine Lin-nen, and far-ed sump-tu-ous-ly e-ve-ry Day.

20 And there was a cer-tain Beg-gar na-med La-za-rus, which was laid at his Gate full of Sores.

21 And de-fi-ring to be fed with the Crumbs which fell from the rich Man's Ta-ble : More-o-ver, the Dogs came and lick-ed his Sores.

22 And it came to pass that the Beg-gar died, and was car-ri-ed by the An-gels in-to A-bra-ham's Bo-som ; the rich Man al-so di-ed and was bu-ri-ed.

23 And

23 And in Hell he lift up his Eyes be-ing in Torments, and se-eth A-bra-ham a-far off, and La-za-rus in his Bo-som.

24 And he cri-ed and said, Fa-ther A-bra-ham have Mer-cy up-on me, and send La-za-rus that he may dip the Tip of his Fin-ger in Wa-ter, and cool my Tongue, for I am tor-ment-ed in this Flame.

25 But A-bra-ham said, Son, re-mem-ber that thou in thy Life-time re-cei-vedst thy good Things, and like-wise La-za-rus e-vil Things, but now he is com-fort-ed, and thou art tor-ment-ed.

26 And be-sides all this, be-tween us and you there is a great Gulf fix-ed; so that they which would pass from hence to you can-not; nei-ther can a-ny pass to us that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee there-fore, Fa-ther, that thou would-est send him to my Fa-ther's House:

28 For I have five Bre-thren; that he may te-sti-fy un-to them, lest they al-so come in-to this Place of Torment.

29 A-bra-ham said un-to him, They have Mo-ses and the Pro-phets let them hear them.

30 And he said, nay, Fa-ther A-bra-ham: but if one went to them from the Dead, they will re-pent.

31 And he said un-to him, If they hear not Mo-ses and the Pro-phets, nei-ther will they be per-sua-ded though one rose from the Dead.

St. Luke, Chap. III. ver. 23.

Fol-ly, lest thou al-so be like un-to him.

B b, B b. Bet-ter it is to be of an hum-ble
Spi-rit with the low-ly, than to di-vide the Spoil with the Proud.

C c, C c. Cha-sten thy son while there is Hope, and let not thy Soul spare for his cry-ing.

D d, D d. Death and Life are in the Pow-er of the Tongue, and they that love it shall eat the Fruit there-of.

E e, E e. E-ven a Child is known by his Do-ings, whe-ther his Work be pure, and whe-ther it be right.

F f, F f. Fool-ish-ness is bound in the Heart of a Child, but the Rod of Cor-rec-ti-on shall drive it far from him.

G g, G g. Give In-struc-ti-on to a wise Man, and he will be yet wi-ser. Teach a just Man, and he will in-crease in Learn-ing.

H h, H h. Heark-en un-to thy Fa-ther that be-gat thee, and des-pise not thy Mo-ther when she is old.

I i, I i. It is an Ho-nour to a Man to cease from Strife, but e-ve-ry Fool will be med-ling.

K k, K k. Keep thy Heart with all Di-li-gence, for out of it are the Is-sues of Life.

L l, L l. Let not thine Heart en-vy Sin-ners, but be thou in the Fear of the Lord all the Day long.

M m, M m. My Son, hear thou the In-struc-ti-on of thy Fa-ther, and for-sake not the Law of thy Mo-ther.

N n, N n. Now there-fore hear-ken un-to me, O ye
Chil-dren; for blef-sed are they that keep my Ways.

O o, O o. O ye Sim-ple, un-der-stand Wis-dom:
and ye Fools, be ye of an un-der-stand-ing Heart.

P p, P p. Po-ver-ty and Shame shall be to him that re-fu-seth In-struc-ti-on: but he that re-gard-eth Reproof shall be ho-nour-ed.

Q q, Q q. Quench not the Spi-rit, prove all Things, and hold fast to that which is good.

R r, R r. Rich-es pro-fit no-thing in the Day of Wrath, but Righ-te-ous-ness de-li-ver-eth from Death.

S s,

The Lord's Prayer.

S l, S l. Sloth-ful-ness cast-eth in-to a deep Sleep ;
and the i-dle Soul shall suf-fer Hun-ger.

and he that hath it shall a-bide sa-tis-fi-ed, he shall not be vi-sit-ed with E-vil.

U u, U u. Un-der-stand-ing is a Well-spring of Life, un-to him that hath it ; but the In-struc-ti-on of Fools is Fol-ly.

W w, W w. Who-so curf-eth his Fa-ther or Mo-ther, his Lamp shall be put out in ob-scure Dark-ness.

Y y, Y y. Young Men and Mai-dens, old Men and Chil-dren, praise ye the Lord.

Z z, Z z. Zi-on shall be re-deem-ed with Judg-ment, and her Con-verts with Righ-te-ous-ness.

The Lord's Prayer.

O U R Fa-ther which art in Hea-ven, Hal-lowed be thy Name ; Thy King-dom come ;
Thy Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven : Give us this Day our Dai-ly Bread ; and for-give us our Tres-pas-ses, as we for-give them that Tres-pas-s a-gainst us ; and lead us not into Temp-ta-ti-on ; but de-li-ver us from E-vil ;
for thine is the King-dom, the Pow-er and Glo-ry, for e-ver and e-ver.

The Lord's Prayer in Verse.

O U R Father which in Heaven art,
Lord, Hallowed be thy Name :
Thy Kingdom come ; thy Will be done in Heaven and Earth the same.

Our daily Bread and Sustenance
Give to us Day by Day,
As we forgive our Debtors, so forgive our Debts we pray.

Into Temptation lead us not,
from Evil save us free ;
For Kingdom, Power, and Glory, thine
both now and ever be. Amen.

The

The C R E E D,

I Be-lieve in God the Fa-ther Al-migh-ty, Ma-ker of Hea-ven and Earth, and in Je-sus Christ his on-ly Son our Lord, who was con-ceiv-ed by the Ho-ly Ghost, born of the Vir-gin Ma-ry, suf-fer-ed un-der Pon-ti-us Pi-late, was cru-ci-fi-ed, dead and bu-ri-ed, he de-scend-ed in-to Hell, the third Day he rose a-gain from the Dead, a-scend-ed in-to Hea-ven, and sit-teth on the right Hand of God the Fa-ther Al-migh-ty, from thence he shall come to judge both the Quick and the Dead: I be-lieve in the Ho-ly Ghost, the Ho-ly Ca-tho-lick Church, the Com-mu-ni-on of Saints, the For-give-ness of Sins, the Re-sur-rec-ti-on of the Bo-dy, and the Life e-ver-last-ing. Amen.

The Ten Commandments.

AND God spake all these Words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the Land of Egypt, out of the House of Bondage.

I. Thou shalt have no other Gods before me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thy self any graven Image, or the Likeness of any thing that is in Heaven above, or that is in the Earth beneath, or that is in the Water under the Earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the Iniquity of the Fathers upon the Children, unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me, and shew Mercy unto Thousands of them that love me, and keep my Commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him Guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy, six Days shalt thou labour and do all thy Work, but the seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God, in it thou shalt not do any Work, thou, nor thy Son, nor thy Daughter, thy Man-servant, nor thy Maid-servant, nor thy Cattle, nor the Stranger that is within thy Gates; for in six Days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea and all that in them is, and rested the Seventh Day; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy Days may be long upon the Land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false Witness against thy Neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's Wife, nor his Manservant, nor his Maid-servant, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is thy Neighbour's.

GOD's Judgments upon the Breakers of the Ten Commandments.

H Appy shall the Man become
Who these Laws depart not from;
Blessings will descend on him
From the Mount of Gerizim :
But from Ebal they shall hear
Curses, who rebellious are.
Death for them attending stands,
Who shall break these just Commands:
And to those who them obey,
God proposeth Life for aye.

I. Commandment. Thou shalt have no other Gods but me.

Pharaoh drowned in the Red Sea, Exod. xiv.

WHO is the Lord, says Pharaoh's hardned Heart;
That I should him obey? But by the Smart
Of God's Ten Plagues, and overflowing Flood;
He God's Almighty Power understood.

The Egyptian Bondage typified all
The Race of Adam in their native Thrall:
And as their temporal Saviour Moses then
Left not behind one Hoof, much less a Man,
Enslav'd to Pharaoh; so the blessed Son
Of this great God hath ransom'd ev'ry one
From that sad House of Bondage and of Pain,
Where we without Redemption else had lain:
For which great Favour he from us doth crave,
That we no other God but him should have;
And that we love him with a reverent Awe,
Which is the whole fulfilling of this Law.

Lord, I beseech Thee, for the Time to come,
So wary keep me of departing from
This Law, that I may still in Heart and Hand
Continue faithful unto this Command.

II. Com-

II. Commandment. Thou shalt not make unto thy self any Graven Image, &c.

The Golden Calf. Exod. xxxii.

MOSES was in the Mount for Forty Days,
 And then did Israel corrupt their Ways;
Aaron they cause a Molten Calf to make,
 And thereby do the God of Heaven forsake.
 Three Thousand suffer'd by their Brethrens Hand;
 For off'ring Violence to this Command.
 Men's Follies make them frequently to err,
 And then their Vice for Virtue they prefer.
 Their Superstitions make them think amiss
 Of God; and then their Service of him is Accordingly devis'd: They favour not
 That Worship which their Wit hath not begot.
 They fear him, Tyrant-like, and dream that he
 Is pleas'd with Cruelty, as Tyrants be.
 Some others make unto themselves a God
 So mild, as if he never us'd a Rod,
 Those Evils to prevent: This Law divine
 The wand'ring Mind doth unto Truth confine.
 O Christ, so perfect my renewed Will,
 That I this holy Precept may fulfil.

III. Com

III. Commandment, Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain, &c.

The Son of Shelomith stoned to Death. Lev. xxiv. 14.

TO fright Blasphemers, we present them with
 An Emblem of the Son of Shelomith,
 Who worthily condemned was to die,
 And stoned for his daring Blasphemy :
 Which is a Crime increased to Excess,
 Tho' branded with an horrid Guiltiness.
 He that with Oaths protests in Matters vain ;
 Or swears for Truths what he himself doth feign ;
 Or tells for certain an uncertain Thing ;
 Or Vows to God what he neglects to bring ;
 Or maketh Vows of what are not allow'd
 Things lawful, or Things proper to be vow'd :
 Even he, whoe'er he be, that shall transgress
 These Ways, is tainted with a Guiltiness.
 For all these Ways God's Name is vainly us'd,
 And such Offences cannot be excus'd ;
 And though his Innocence he defends,
 Against this third Commandment he offends.

My Heart, Lord God, settle thou in thy Way,
 That I this Law may never disobey,

IV. Commandment. Remember to keep Holy the Sabbath Day, &c.

*The Man Stoned for gathering Sticks on the Sabbath Day.
Numb. xv. 32.*

IF he were slain, who on the Sabbath-day
 For Need did gather Sticks : O ! how shall they Escape God's Wrath, who for a Trade of Pleasure, Prophane his holy Sabbaths without Measure ?
 Ah ! let not these Times which are set apart
 To rest the Body, to instruct the Heart,
 And to preserve a due Commemoration
 Of the most blessed Means of our Salvation,
 Be judged vain ; or that they do not draw
 Authority sufficient from this Law.
 Let those, who for the Body's Ease and Pleasure
 Part of this Time allow, preserve the Measure
 That's justly due ; and in due Manner too,
 Do that which is allowable to do :
 Not for the Soul's well-doing caring less
 Than to prevent the Body's Weariness.
 Let them who of the Soul most careful seem,
 Remember still the Body to esteem.

Come Holy Ghost to sanctify my Heart,
 That from this Law I never may depart.

V. Com-

V. Commandment. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, &c.

Abfalom hanging in an Oak. 2 Sam. xviii.

WHAT of rebellious Children will become,
 And graceless Youths view here in Abfalom :
 For whose Offence the Earth did, as it were,
 Refusal make his Body's Weight to bear.
 And Heaven rejects it ; that it might present
 Him hanging for a dreadful Monument.
 Through Ages all, to warn and keep in awe
 The Slighters and Infringers of this Law.
 He that shall break this Precept, maketh Snares
 Wherein to hang himself at unawares.
 We, from the Parents of our Bodies have
 A natural Being ; and they justly crave
 To be obey'd in all Things, but in those
 Which may the Laws of God or Man oppose,
 Besides our Parents, we to Princes too
 A Duty by this Obligation owe.
 The Fathers of our Country by this Law
 Claim from us Honour, Loyalty, and Awe.
 O gracious God, preserve a Heart in me,
 Which to this Law may still obedient be.

VI. CORR.

VI. Commandment. Thou shalt do no Murder.

Joab murders Amasa. 2 Sam. xx. 9.

MURDER does always leave a bloody Stain,
Which hardly unreveng'd doth long remain,
Unless a Flood of penitent Tears it cost;
Or until Blood for innocent Blood be lost.
For neither could old Age, nor Length of Time,
Ever clear Joab from his horrid Crime
Gainst Amasa: his Power, tho' great it was,
Could not secure him, nor a privileg'd Place
His hoary Head from Heaven's just Vengeance hide;
But for his treacherous Offence he dy'd.

None had been safe, unless the bloody Sin
Forbidden here had both restrained been,
And still pursued (Mischiefs to prevent)
With secret and with open Punishment:
For tho', like Joab, (whom we represent)
Men may, by Greatness, keep off Punishment
Till they are old; it will their Heels pursue,
And give them at their last their bloody Due.
Thrice, Holy Trinity, my Heart possess,
And I this Precept never shall transgress.

VII. Com-

I. Commandment: Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

Zimri and Cosbi slain by Phineas. Numb. xxv.

I Srael is plagu'd, Zimri and Cosbi vile
 Themselves do with Adultery defile ;
 Whom zealous Phineas in the Act doth slay :
 Thus Lust God doth with Punishment repay.
 Behold this Figure, you who take Delight,
 To give the Reins to wanton Appetite :
 Reflect, and say, Ah Lord ! why may not we Struck suddenly in our Pollutions be
 As well as these, and others, who have been Surprized in the very Act of Sin.
 Consider this, and tremble, for no Year
 Wheels round, but we of one or other hear
 Thus taken ; that you might forsake the Snare,
 And others be forewarn'd of coming there.
 Lord from this Wickedness divert our Eyes,
 That unawares it ne'er our Hearts surprize :
 Preserve us chaste and temp'rate we desire,
 And in such Purity as thou dost require.
 Let thy Love always keep my Heart in Awe,
 That I may still take Care to keep this Law.

VIII. Commandment. Thou shalt not steal:Achan stoned for Theft. Josh. vii.

WHEN pilfering Achan stole the Wedge of Gold,
 And Babylonish Robe, Heaven did behold
 That impious Act ; would not appeased be Till he was ruin'd with his Family.

O Lord, vouchsafe us Grace to be content
 With whatsoever thou to us hath lent ;
 As long as Life on us shall be bestown,
 Let us be fed and cloathed with our own :
 If by a wilful or an ignorant Wrong
 We have detained ought which doth belong
 Unto our Neighbour, give us Means and Will
 By Restitution for our doing Ill,
 To make amends ; or else do thou repay them
 The Dues, which we unwillingly delay them :
 Forgive thou also our Unrighteousness,
 That is corrupt not what we do possess :
 And let us never lay our Hands on what
 Is Portion of another Man's Estate.

My sweet Redeemer so my Heart incline,
 That I may always keep this Law of thine.

IX. Commandment. Thou shalt not bear false Witness against thy Neighbour.

Jezebel killed, and eaten by Dogs. 1 Kings xxi.

THough wicked Jezebel, vile Ahab's Wife,
By hired Witnesses took Nabal's Life;
Yet, where the Dogs the good Man's Blood did taste,
Vengeance did her to Death pursue at last.

Were this Command omitted, who could say,
He should enjoy his Life or Goods one Day?
Where could we be secure from perjur'd Men,
Unless God sent forth Vengeance now and then?
Or, by what Means might they be kept in Awe,
Whose Greatness makes them fearless of this Law?
How safe seem'd Jezebel by being Great,
And yet, how boldly did the Prophet threat
Succeeding Vengeance? And tho' she were high,
How low upon a sudden did she lye?
That high and low might view this dreadful Sight,
And might in Truth and Honesty delight.

Lord, grant that I, who others see offend,
May find out my own Errors, and amend:
Yea, Lord, so teach me, and be so my Guide,
That faithful to this Law I may abide.

X. Com.

X. Commandment. Thou shalt not covet, &c.King Ahab slain. 1 Kings xxii.

HERE wicked Abab's Folly let us mind,
 Who to this Sin was wretchedly inclin'd :
 He covets Naboth's Vineyard in his Heart,
 Which soon was pier'd with Heaven's revenging Dart.

When once this Vice to seize on us begins,
 We Crowns and Scepters change for crooked Pins :
 And by unlawful coveting of more,
 We lose and forfeit all we had before.
 Unthinking Abab found this to his Cost,
 Who his whole Kingdom for a Garden lost :
 And his untimely Fall is on Record,
 That this his Wickedness might be abhorr'd.

Thou, who to covet, think'st it no great Crime,
 Consider well what Wickedness in time
 Arises thence, what Danger, and what Shame,
 Unless thou timely dost repent the same :
 This Folly, and the Sequel of it, view
 In Abab, and his Guiltiness eschew.

Lord, grant that all thy Laws I keep intire,
 In Thought, and Word, and also in Desire.

Having proceeded thus far in true Spelling, and the Learner being by this Time taught to read: I shall next proceed to that most necessary Accomplishment of fair and exact Writing, that so nothing may be wanting to compleat young Persons for Business.

Directions for Writing.

THose who aim at Excellency in this most useful and necessary Art, ought to be accommodated with proper Instruments for the Work, as, 1. A good Light right over against them. 2. A Desk to write on, or something leaning, that you may be able to sit upright, with more Ease to the Body, and less Trouble to the Head, than bowing and holding it down. 3. To have a good Penknife to be kept always keen, either with a Hone, or Piece of Leather with Oyl. 4. To be provided with good Quills of a Goose or Raven: If they are too hard, steep them in Water; if too soft, lay them a short Space in Embers; scrape the Quill with the Back of your Penknife, then cut off about a Quarter of an Inch, or a Finger's Breadth, from the End; enter the Knife just at the End of its Backside where you have cut; then put in the loose End of your Quill, and holding your left Thumb on the Back thereof, you may, by twitching up the End of your Quill, make a Slit either long or short, as you please; when you have scraped your Quill smooth, not too soft nor thin, cut each Side alike, and preserve the Slit to such a Length, that you may write soft or hard, as you please; and placing it on your Thumb, hold your Knife a little

a little sloping; and cut the End of your Nib; but before you cut it through, turn your Knife downright, and cut it off: You may fashion it as you please, broader or narrower, according to the Size of the Letter you intend to write.

Being furnished with a good Pen, next consider how to hold and manage it like a Penman; for,

What's Great Goliath's Spear, the seven-fold Shield,

Scanderberg's Sword, to one that cannot wield

Such Weapons? Or what means a well-cut Quill,

In th' untaught Hand of him that has no Skill?

Observe then to place your Thumb on the Side of your Pen next your Breast, highest of all: Place your Fore finger next to the Top of your Pen, and permit it to reach about a Quarter of an Inch beneath the End of your Thumb. Lastly, place your middle Finger somewhat lower than that on the farthest Side of the Pen, the two Fingers being in a manner extended to their full Length, the Thumb only rising in the Joint. Your Hand being thus prepared for your Pen, your Pen for that, and your Paper for both, which must lie strait before you; your Arm being laid right forth, and your Elbow even with the midst of the End thereof, it being ruled either with single or double Lines, with a small Pair of Compasses, set at such a Distance as may fit the Depth of the Hand you write; or a Quill cut forked for that Purpose may do as well. Then take your Ink up sparingly, with the hallow side of your Pen downward; it being free from Hairs, or any thing that may hinder the free Passage of the Ink, you may then begin to write Copies; some of which I have here inserted for the Assistance of young Learners, which being often written over, will soon teach you to write to Perfection.

In order whereunto you must first imitate an Alphabet of small Letters of the Hand you intend to write, and practise such Letters first, as may help to the making of one another: As for Example; first make a small i, then with a small Stroke from the Top joined to another i, it will make n; add a third i, and it makes m; if you make two i's, with a small Stroke at the Bottom, it will make an u; and the like, as your own Observation will direct you. But always remember that,

1. All downright Lines or Strokes, in all Hands whatsoever must be full.

2. All Strokes descending from the left Hand to the right, must also be full.

3. All traverse or cross Strokes drawn even, either from the right Hand to the left, or from the left to the right, must be small.

4. An even Distance must be kept between one Letter and another, and betwixt Word and Word.

5. The Whites of each Letter must be made of equal Size.

6. The Heads and Stems of Letters in one Hand must be of the same Height.

7. The Tails of all Letters of the same Hand must be of the same Depth.

8. All Compass Letters in all Hands must be of equal Proportion one with another.

To make the best Ink.

TAKE about half a Pint of Gauls, cut them in Pieces, put them into an earthen Pot, with about a Quart of Beer, neither too strong nor small; let them stand twelve Hours; then being strained from the Gauls, put into it two Ounces of Vitriol, and almost an Ounce of Gum Arabick; set your Pot on a moderate Fire to warm, not boil; then put it into an earthen Pitcher, well glazed within, and keep it for Use.

To write with Gold.

BUY some Shells of Gold, which are about Sixpence apiece, put to it a Spoonful of Spring-Water, wherein Gum Arabick hath been dissolved; temper it together with a clean Pencil, till it appear a little thick; dip a new Pen therein, always stirring it about with the Pencil when you take a Pen-full; wherewith having written on good Paper, or rather Vellum (as with ordinary Ink) when it is thoroughly dry, rub it with a Dog's Tooth, laying your Paper on an even Table, and polish or burnish every Letter.

And thus you quickly will behold

Your Writing brightly shine with Gold.

Alphabetical Copies for Youth to write out.

ALL God's Commandments are divinely pure;
By keeping them, Men keep their Souls secure.
By Pen or Pencil, who to mortal Eye
Can represent immense Eternity.
Count God's eternal Word thy noblest Treasure,
Which read and practis'd yields eternal Pleasure.
Defer not till to Morrow to essay
What worthy Acts you can perform to Day.
Estates to gain, Men toil and break their Rest,
But Competency with Content is best.

Fair

Fair Writing then to Excellence doth rise
Most, when the Pen is most in Exercise.
Greatness and Goodness make a Man compleat ;
But few there be that are both Good and Great.
He that for Pleasure forfeits his Estate,
Has bought Repentance at too dear a Rate.
If to excel the best you emulate,
The most excelling Patterns imitate.
Know thyself first, and then begin to scan
The Imperfections of another Man.
Learning, and the choice Documents of Truth,
Should be infus'd into us in our Youth.
More confidently none themselves advance,
Than the unworthy Sons of Ignorance.
No wonder if the best Men sometimes fail,
Since all are mortal, and their Nature's frail.
Of bad Examples, Satan's Baits beware,
And shun them as a pestilential Air.
Practice gives Motion to the Penman's Hand,
Fair Writing's Excellencies to command.
Quoth Will, I am resolv'd reveng'd to be :
Quoth Wit, have Patience, and be rul'd by me.
Refuse to act to Day, what may to Morrow
Procure your Torment, or at least your Sorrow.
Still acquiesce in Providence Divine,
What's not to Day, to Morrow may be thine.
To Day we laugh and frolick, and to Morrow
We sigh and groan upon the Bed of Sorrow.
Use Providence, Temperance and Moderation,
Shun Commendation, and hate Ostentation.
When to the World you others Faults make known,
Ingenuously reflect upon your own.
Xerxes with Tears survey'd his num'rous Host,
Knowing how soon by Death they would be lost.
Your Memory with choicest Treasures store,
Thieves cannot make the rich in Knowledge poor.
Zeal without Knowledge doth the Judgment taint
Although the Zealot thinks himself a Saint.

There are divers Points, Stops and Pauses, which are very useful in Writing and Printing, and are carefully to be observed in Reading ; namely, these following :

Comma ———	(,)	A Note of Admiration ———	(!)
Semicolon ———	(;)	A Parenthesis ———	()
Colon ———	(:)	Obelisk ———	(+)
Full Point ———	(.)	Hyphen ———	(-)
Asterism ———	(*)	Apostrophe, a Word cut off	(')
A Note of Interrogation ———	(?)

A Comma is an half Circle, (,) which stays a Sentence a-while like a breathing Time. As for Example: Finally Brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, think on these things.

A Colon is two Points (:) that stops the Sentence for a while, and denotes the full, but not the perfect Sense. As, Be careful for nothing: but in every thing, by Prayer, let your Requests be made known to God.

A Semicolon is a Point with a Comma under it (;) and notes a greater Stop than a Comma, and less than a Colon: As, He that saith unto the Wicked, thou art Righteous; him shall the People curse.

A Period, or full Stop, is a Point after a perfect Sentence (.) At this Point make a full Stop, sounding the last Word somewhat longer: As, Fear God, Honour the King.

A Note of Interrogation, always used after a Question, hath a full Point, and a Tail above it thus (?). At this make a full Stop, sounding the whole Sentence before it; thus, Who hath Woe? Who hath Sorrow? Who hath Contentions? Who hath Babling? Who hath Wounds without Cause? Who hath Redness of Eyes?

A Note of Admiration, or Exclamation, wondering and crying out, is thus (!). As, O the Depths of the Riches of the Knowledge and Wisdom of God!

A Parenthesis is two Semicircles or Half-Moons, including a Sentence, thus (). This must be pronounced somewhat different from the rest, as being an Addition to a Sentence whose Sense would be perfect and intire without it: As, Wherefore we would have come unto you (even I Paul) once and again; but Satan hindred us.

Apostrophe is a Comma, or Note, written just over the Place of a Vowel or Diphthong that is cut off: As Lo'v'd for loved, I'll for I will, th' art for thou art.

Dieresis is a Note of a Diphthong, parted into two Syllables: As, re-al, mo-ved, &c.

Hyphen is a Note of Continuation, when a compounded Word is parted in the midst: As, Self-deceit, Self-confidence.

Asterism, or a little Star (*) is to point out something wanting

An

An Index or Hand thus (☞), denotes somewhat remarkable.

Lastly, an Obelisk (†) always refers from the Matter to the Margin.

The Neglect or misplacing of those Points do often pervert the Sense and true Meaping of a Sentence: As, Prov. xiv. A Scornor seeketh Wisdom, and findeth it, not but Knowledge, &c. findeth it, for findeth it not, and so the like.

Of Great Letters and Figures.

THE Learner is to remember, that in Writing, Capital or great Letters must be used either for proper Names, or to begin Sentences; yea, some more remarkable Scriptures are printed all in Capitals; as KING OF KINGS, in the Revelations, HOLINESS TO THE LORD JEHOVAH; and the like Capital Letters begin Words; as Genesis, Exodus, Adam, Moses, Job, Daniel, &c. Also Sentences, as, In the Beginning. Blessed is the Man, &c. The Book of the Generation, &c. Great Letters are likewise used for Countries, Towns, Cities, Offices, Months, Days, Sciences, &c. as England, France, London, York, Barnet, Bromley; King, Queen, Duke, Earl, Lord, Mayor, Constable; January, February, Monday, Tuesday; Astronomy, Astrology, Navigation. When you end a Sentence with a full Point, begin the next with a great Letter; as, Open Rebuke is better than secret Love. Faithful are the Wounds of a Friend, &c. And in Poetry every Line must begin with a Capital Letter. For Example:

*For Virtue's sake, now in your youthful Prime,
Be a good Husband of your precious Time:
Make Aſſion Miſtreſs of your beſt Affections,
Court her, ſhe's beautiful beyond Objections:
She crowns her Lovers with the beſt of Things,
And gains them Favour with the beſt of Kings.*

Of Figures and Numbers.

NExt to Spelling, Reading, and Writing, ſucceed Figures, Numbers and Arithmetick. Now the Figures and Numeral Letters whereby Numbers are expreſs'd, (and which will enable you eaſily to find any Chapter, Pfalm or Verſe in the Bible, or elſewhere) are theſe following:

I One 1.
II Two 2.
III. Three 3.
IV Four 4.
V Five 5.
VI Six 6.
VII Seven 7.
VIII. Eight 8.
IX Nine 9.
X Ten 10.

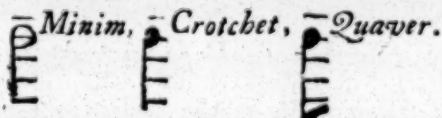

XI Eleven 11.
XII Twelve 12.
XIII Thirteen 13.
XIV Fourteen 14.
XV Fifteen 15.
XVI Sixteen
XVII Seventeen 17.
XVIII Eighteen 18.
XIX Nineteen 19.
XX Twenty 20.

XXI Twenty one 21.
XXII Twenty two 22.
XXIII Twenty three 23.
XXIV Twenty four 24.
XXV Twenty five 25.
XXVI Twenty six 26.
XXVII Twenty seven 27.
XXVIII Twenty eight 28.
XXIX Twenty nine 29.
XXX Thirty 30.
XL Forty 40.

L Fifty 50.
LX Sixty 60.
LXX Seventy 70.
LXXX Eighty 80.
XC Ninety 90.
C One hundred 100.
CC Two hundred 200.
D Five hundred 500.
M One thousand 1000.
MDCCXXXIX 1739.

Besides these Letters and Figures, there are several Marks and Characters used in divers Arts and Sciences, which may be useful to be known. As for Example ;

Musicians distinguish their Notes by these Marks following,

Astronomers and Astrologers distinguish the Signs and Planets in the Heavens by the following Characters. The Seven Planets are ♄ Saturn, ♃ Jupiter, ♂ Mars, ☉ Sol, ♀ Venus, ☿ Mercurius, ☾ Luna. The twelve Signs are, ♈ Aries, ♉ Taurus, ♊ Gemini, ♋ Cancer, ♌ Leo, ♍ Virgo, ♎ Libra, ♏ Scorpio, ♐ Sagittarius, ♑ Capricornus, ♒ Aquarius, ♓ Pisces. The five Aspects are, * Sextile, □ Quartile, △ Trine, ⚡ Opposition, ⚬ Conjunction.

Apothecaries make Marks, Letters and Characters, to signify Weight, Measures and Words; (m) Manipulus, an Handful (p) Pugil, or half an Handful, (gr.) a Grain, (ʒ) a Scruple, (ʒ) a Dram, (℥) an Ounce, (℔) Semissis, half a Pound, (lb) Libra, a Pound, (℞) Recipe, or take, (Ana) a like Quantity, (q. s.) Quantum satis, a sufficient Quantity, (q. l.) Quantum libet, as much as you please.

Likewise, in our English Writing we borrow many Abbreviations from the Latin, as (e. gr.) Exempli gratia, for Example : So in Sums of Money we put over them l. s. d. q.

which signifies libæ, solidi, denarii, quadrantes, Pounds, Shillings, Pence, Farthings; so that the Sum is four Pounds, five Shillings, ten Pence Half-penny.

Again, (P) stands for Pagina or Page, (§) Sectio, Division, S. P. Q. L. Senatus Populusque Londini, Senate and People of London. D. D. Doctor of Divinity, N. B. Nota Bene, Note well. SS. Th. D. Sacrosanctæ Theologiæ Doctor, Doctor of Divinity. Qu. stands for Question. Answ. Answer. Sr. Sir. Dr. Doctor. Esq; Esquire. Jan. for January. Sept. for September. Cant. for Canterbury. Oxon. for Oxford. C. C. C. Corpus Christi College. Matt. for Matthew. Col. for Colossians. Rev. for Revelations. Gen. for Genesis, and the like; G. R. Georgius Rex. So sometimes two Words or Syllables are contracted into one; as, I'm, for I am; I'll, for I will; e'er, for ever; o'er, for over. Many other Contractions are used, which your Observation will make easy to you.

All Numbers are written with Ten Characters or Figures, of which the last is called a Cypher, and of itself signifieth nothing; but serveth according as it is placed, to increase or diminish the Value of another Figure, to which it is either joined or prefixed. The Figures are, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 0. Numbers are either single or compounded; the single are as 2, 4, 6, 7; compound, when two, three, four, or more Figures are joined together; as 35 is thirty-five; 356 is three hundred fifty-six; 3568 is three thousand five hundred sixty-eight; 1696 is one thousand six hundred ninety-six.

But not having Room for Arithmetick, I shall only insert some few Examples of Addition and Subtraction. Suppose then that

	l.	s.	d.
John Swift owes me—	02	03	04
Thomas Slow ———	04	05	02
William Paynone ———	07	09	03
Nic. Dulman ———	11	13	11
Edward Careless ———	15	19	01

If you would cast up the whole together, you must begin with the utmost Row of Figures on the Right-hand, and say, 1 and 11 is 12; then make a full Point against it: Then 3 and 2 is 5, and 4 is 9, put down 9 under a Line at the Bottom. Proceed next to the second Row of Figures, and say, 1 I carry, and 9 is 10, and 3 is 13, and 9 is 22, and 5 is 27, and 3 is 30. Then say, 30 and 10 before the 9 is 40, and 10 before 3 is 50; that is 2 Pound 10 Shillings. Put down the 10 under the Line, and proceed to the next Row of Figures, and say, 2 I carry, and 5 is 7, and 1 is 8, and 7 is 15, and 4 is 19, and 2 is 21. Then say, 10 before the 5 is 31; 10 before the 1 is 41. So the Sum is thus;

Next it will be necessary to give an Account of English Money, Weights and Measures, in a few plain Tables. And first of Coins.

Of Weights and Measures.

Some write, that Weight and Long Measure were originally deduced from a Barley Corn taken out of the Middle of the Ear, which is called a Grain of Wheat, and is the least Weight used in Great-Britain, of which there are several Sorts; as Troy, Averdupois, and Apothecaries Weights.

With Troy Weight are weighed, Bread, Silver, &c. whereof

24 Grains make one Penny-weight.

20 Penny-weights make an Ounce.

12 Ounces make a Pound.

By Averdupois Weight is weighed Butter, Cheese, Fish, Wax, Lead, Pitch, Rosin, Tallow, Tin, Copper, Hemp, Iron, and all Grocery Wares, &c. whereof, 16 Drams make an Ounce.

16 Ounces make a Pound.

28 Pounds make a Quarter of a Hundred.

4 Quarters make an 100 Weight, or 112 Pound.

Wool is also weighed by the same Weight, but the Divisions are somewhat different; for 7 Pounds is a Clove.

6 Cloves is a Stone.

2 Stone is a Todd.

6 Todd or 12 Stone is a Wey.

3 Weys is a Sack.

And 12 Sacks is a Last of Wool.

Apothecaries Weights are the same in the Main with Troy Weight, only the Subdivision of the Pound is different; for,

Thus mark'd.

20 Grains is a Scruple ——— 3

3 Scruples make a Dram --- 5

8 Drams is an Ounce ——— 3

12 Ounces is a Pound Weight lb

Of Liquid Measure.

THE least Denomination in Liquid Measure is a Pint, which was formerly deduced from Troy Weight, a Pound of Wheat Troy making a Pint of Ale. By this Measure is fold, Wine, Beer, Mum, Cyder, and other Liquors.

2 Pints make a Quart; 2 Quarts a Pottle.

2 Pottles a Gallon.

8 Gallons is a Firkin of Ale, Soap, or Herrings.

9 Gallons is a Firkin of Beer.

10 Gallons and a Half a Firkin of Salmon and Eels.

2 Firkins

- 2 Firkins make a Kilderkin.
- 42 Gallons is a Tierce of Wine.
- 63 Gallons make one Hoghead.
- 3 Hogheads is a Pipe or Butt.
- 2 Butts is a Tan of Wine.

Of Dry Measure.

THE least Denomination of dry Measures is a Pint, which is taken from Troy Weight. With these are measured all dry Substances; as Coals, Sand, Salt, Oats, Barley, Wheat, and the like; for

- 2 Pints make a Quart; 4 Quarts a Pottle.
- 2 Potles one Gallon; 2 Gallons one Peck.
- 4 Pecks one Bushel, Land Measure.
- 5 Pecks one Bushel, Water Measure.
- 8 Bushels make one Quarter.
- 5 Quarters one Weigh.

Of Long Measure.

BY this Measure, Glass, Board, Land, Pavement, Cloth, Tapestry, &c. is measured, whereby

- 3 Barley Corns make an Inch.
- 12 Inches make one Foot.
- 3 Foot, one Yard; 3 Foot 9 Inches, one Ell.
- 6 Foot one Fathom.
- 5 Yards and a half, or 16 Foot and a half, make one Pole or Perch.
- 40 Poles or Perches, 1 Furlong or Acre in Length.
- 8 Furlongs one English Mile.
- 40 Square Poles or Perches make a Rood, or a Quarter of an Acre.
- 4 Roods make an Acre.

In Cloth Measure, 4 Nails make a Quarter of a Yard; 3 Quarters of a Yard make an Ell Flemish; 4 Quarters an English Yard; 5 Quarters of a Yard an Ell English.

Of TIME.

THE denominative Parts of Time are originally deduced from the Sun's Motion in the Heavens, which is carried round the same from East to West, by a rapid Motion, in one natural Day; which Day is divided into 24 supposed Parts called Hours, and each Hour is subdivided into 60 Minutes. So that 60 Mi-

60 Minutes make an Hour.

24 Hours make a Natural Day.

7 Days make a Week.

4 Weeks make a Month, consisting of 28 Days.

12 Months, 1 Day, and 6 Hours make a Year.

Yet in ordinary Computations of Time, the Year is divided into 12 unequal Calendar Months, whose Names, and the Number of Days that each containeth, are as followeth :

	Days		Days
January hath	31	July	31
February	28	August	31
March	31	September	30
April	30	October	31
May	31	November	30
June	30	December	31

Comprehended in these four Lines.

*Thirty Days hath September,
April, June, and November;
February hath Twenty-Eight alone,
And all the rest have Thirty-One.*

Observe, that the fix odd Hours are reckoned but once in four Years, and then one whole Day is added to the Year, making it to consist of 366 Days, and it is called Leap-Year. This Day is added to February, which that Year hath 29 Days. The Tropical Year is, by Astronomers, reckoned to consist of 5 Days, 5 Hours, 49 Minutes, 4 Seconds, and 21 Thirds.

The People of England observe four Quarter-days for Payment of Rents, Taxes, &c. namely, March 25. called Lady-Day, June 24. called Midsummer-Day, September 29. called Michaelmas-Day, and December 25. called Christmas-Day. In some Countries in England, they make four other Quarter-Days; that is, February 2. call'd Candlemas-Day; May 1. called May-Tide; August 1. called Lammas-Tide; November 1. called All-saints Day.

Having briefly dispatched the Addition of Numbers, Weights, Measures, and Time, I shall give an Example of Subtraction, as thus;

Scripture Examples for the Instruction of Youth.

1. David. 2. Solomon. 3. Elijah. 4. Daniel.

5. Job. 6. Joseph. 7. Eli. 8. Esther

1. D Avid, a Man was after God's own Heart,
Who wondrous Blessings did to him impart ;
By whose Assistance in his Youth he kill'd
The Great Goliath, and so won the Field.

2. K Ing Solomon in Wisdom did excel
All the preceeding Kings of Israel ;

He

He in his Youth Wisdom of God did crave,
Who Wealth and Honour likewise to him gave.

3. Elijah was a Prophet of the Lord,
Who mighty Wonders did upon Record:
The Ravens daily bring him Bread and Flesh,
Wherewith his fainting Spirits they refresh.

4. Daniel, because he to his God wou'd pray,
Is by the King's Command, without Delay,
Thrown in the Lion's Den; they stand in Fear,
And will not touch him, Daniel's God was there.

5. JOB, plagu'd with loathsome Ulcers, patient lyes,
O'erwhelmed in a Gulph of Miseries:
At length God checks his Friends, renews his Health,
Gives him more Children, and redoubled Wealth.

6. HIS Brethren Joseph into Ægypt sold,
Because he his Advancement had foretold;
Yet they were forc'd to him to bow the Knee,
To be preserv'd from Want and Misery.

7. When Eli heard the Ark of God was lost,
And his two Sons slain by the En'my's Host;
He with these Tidings was so terrify'd,
That he fell backward from his Seat and dy'd.

8. Esther is by the King belov'd and crown'd,
Haman resolves he will the Jews confound:
But at her Suit the King commands that he Should on a lofty Gallows hanged be.

MAny Examples Scripture doth afford
To Children, that they should obey the Lord;
That they should fear, and worship him in Youth,
And be acquainted with the Word of Truth:
And tho' they in the narrow Way do find
But few Companions, yet they still must mind
Their great Creator; so they Heav'n shall gain,
And thereby shall escape eternal Pain.

The Scholar's Prayer for the Morning.

Most mighty and most glorious Lord God, who art infinite in Mercy, Loving-kindness, and Truth; Heaven and Earth are full of thy Glory: yet I that am but poor Dust and Ashes, presume to present myself before thee this Morning, to beg such Mercies as I have need of from thy Divine Majesty. Praised be thy Name, O God, for thy Favours extended towards me the Night passed; that thou hast been pleased to refresh my weak and wearied Body with moderate Rest and Sleep. Defend me, I beseech thee, this Day from all Perils of Soul and Body; to which End I commend myself, and all my Actions, unto thy Protection and Government, beseeching thee so to direct me in thy Ways, that I may live to thy Praise all my Days, and at length may attain to eternal Glory and Happiness. I must confess, O Lord, I have slighted thy Goodness, which would have led me to Repentance, hardning my Heart against all those Means which thou hast used for my Amendment, and can therefore justly expect nothing from thee but Wrath and Judgment. But, O Lord, there is Mercy with thee that thou mayest be feared. O prepare my Heart to receive it by deep and hearty Repentance for all my Sins. Let me remember my Creator in the Days of my Youth, and redeem that precious Time which I can never recal. Breathe into my Soul the Spirit of Understanding; and be thou my School-master, that, as I grow in Years, I may grow in Grace, and in the Knowledge of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Bless my Parents, Friends, and Relations, and be my God and my Guide this Day and for ever, through the Merits and Mercies of my blessed Redeemer, who commanded his Disciples when they pray, to say, Our Father, &c.

The Scholar's Prayer for the Evening.

Most glorious and everlasting Lord God, who inhabitest Eternity, and dwellest in that Light which no Mortal can approach unto; the God in whom I live and have my Being, I, thine unworthy Servant, humbly prostrate myself before thy Divine Majesty, confessing and acknowledging that I was conceived in Sin, and brought forth in Iniquity; and, as if that had been but a small Matter, I have heaped up actual Transgressions against thee, and have gone on in a daily Course of repenting those Provocations against thee, notwithstanding all thy Calls, and my own Purposes of Amendment. But, O Lord,

Lord, I know thou wilt not the Death of a Sinner, have Mercy therefore on me, and work in me a sincere Contrition, and a perfect Hatred of my Sins; and let me not daily confess and repeat them, but from this Instant, let me give a Divorce to my beloved Lulls. Let the Blood of thy Son cleanse me from all Impurity. Own me as thy Child, and shadow me under thy Wings. O thou that never slumberest nor sleepest, be pleased to watch over me this Night, and make me ever mindful of that Time, when I shall lay down in the Dust, and to prepare my Soul to meet the Lord, at what Hour soever he comes: And, if thou should let me see the Light of the next Day, let me live to serve thee better, and grow up daily in Learning and true Knowledge. Bless all that I am bound to pray for; preserve my Friends and Relations; do good to my Enemies, and bestow whatsoever thou knowest necessary for me; in and through the Merits of Christ Jesus, who hath taught me to pray, Our Father, &c.

Short Graces and Thanksgivings before and after Meat.

Before Meat.

Lord bless us, and these thy good Creatures, to the Nourishment of our Bodies; and grant, that whether we Eat or Drink, or whatsoever else we do, it may be all to thy Praise and Glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After Meat.

WE give thee most hearty Thanks, O Lord, for thy bountiful Liberality to us at this Time: Grant that we may serve thee better in the Enjoyment of these thy Mercies, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Before Meat.

Humble our Souls before thee, O Lord, and cause us to know the Smallness of our Deserts of the least of thy Mercies; and bless these good Creatures at this Time for our Use, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After Meat.

FOR these, and all other thy Mercies, O Lord, which we daily receive, we give thee hearty Thanks and Praise, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
